Ponca Jazz Records is proud and happy to announce that Liv Stoveland is releasing a new album.

Liv says: "Being able to record an album containing music I really love is a dream come true".

Keywords about the music: Standards, original jazz compositions, songs written specifically to this recording - and more.

It's been a while since Stoveland made her debut with the album "Close your eyes" released to wonderful reviews. This album has been delayed, lately because she was offered a seat in the NRK-series "ANNO" and said yes. ANNO was broadcasted during the summer of 2015.

Now the album "Solitary Moon" is here and she has handpicked the musician, and the guitarist Espen Larsen has composed all the tunes written specifically for this recording with lyrics by Arne Birketveit.

All music arrangements are by Liv in cooperation with the musicians.
